Women's Cell IIT Kanpur

presents

Workshop on Legal Rights of Women

conducted by

*Ms. Flavia Agnes

About Ms. Flavia Agnes and Majlis:

Flavia Agnes is an eminent legal scholar and is well-known for her work on legal reforms. She is a pioneer of the movement on women's rights in India. She has numerous publications to her credit, including books, analyzing women's rights and issues of gender and identity in the context of the legal system. She is the co-founder of Majlis, a major legal and cultural resource centre that has provided assistance to women in matrimonial and criminal litigations over the past two decades and more. The organization also imparts training to different sections of the community on legal rights of women; the mission is to create a culture of rights and help women across class and community access justice.

November 2, Friday

- Session on Constitution of India – parts specially relevant to women
- Time and Venue: 2-4pm, Lecture Hall L16
- Tea: 1.30pm, L16 foyer

November 3, Saturday

- Two Sessions on Laws covering
  - Dowry
  - Domestic violence
  - Sexual violence - POCSO and IPC
  - Maternity Benefits
  - MTP and its relevance to sex selective abortion issue
  - Matrimonial rights and Child custody
- Time and Venue: 10am-12noon, RM101 (Rajeev Motwani Building, CSE) and 2-4pm, Lecture Hall L16
- Tea: 9.30am and 1.30pm

 Ms. Agnes will be assisted by advocate Ms. Bindiya Rao from *Majlis Legal Centre